

I strongly agree with the position that Morse code should be required only if the licensee intends to use Morse. I request that the Commission drop the Morse requirement for all phone-only classes. This would not only put the US on equal footing with the requirements of many other nations, but would enlarge the pool of amateurs capable of helping during an emergency. I support RM-10808.